

Police Service of Northern Ireland Manual of Policy, Procedure and Guidance on

Conflict Management

The guidance in this manual is provided to assist policing in Northern Ireland only.

The decision to make the content or any part of it, publicly available or not, rests with the Chief Constable

WE CARE • WE LISTEN • WE ACT

The purpose of this manual is to facilitate an understanding and to provide practical guidance concerning the use of force by police officers. It is intended to follow the policy, procedure and guidelines promulgated to forces by the National Police Chiefs Council (NPCC).

Contents

Introduction

Chapter 1 Legal Basis and Human Rights

Chapter 2 Accountability and Training

Chapter 3 Reporting Use of Force

Chapter 4 Irritant Spray

Chapter 5 Batons

Chapter 6 Handcuffs

Chapter 7 Limb Restraints

Chapter 8 Access to Firearms and Ammunition

Chapter 9 Police Use of Firearms

Chapter 10 Personal Issue Handguns, Heckler and Koch Weapons and Specialist Munitions

Chapter 11 AEP (Firearms Incidents – Less Lethal)

Chapter 12 Conductive Energy Devices (CED)

Chapter 13 Public Order

Chapter 14 AEP (Public Disorder)

Chapter 15 Water Cannon

Chapter 16 Spit and Bite Guards

Appendices

- A Method of Entry
- B Personal Protective Equipment
- C Protection against Corrosive Fluids
- D Protection against Laser
- E Positional Asphyxia and Acute Behavioural Disturbance
- F Core Skills Related to Firearms Capabilities
- G Use of Police Vehicles and Public Order Screens in Situations of Public Disorder
- H Tactics with Public Order Dogs
- I The Provision of First Aid During Planned Events, Anticipated Public Disorder and Spontaneous Incidents
- J Requirements for the Early Reporting to the NIPB on Police Discharge of AEP
- K Evidence Gathering Teams – Public Order Events
- L The Use of AEP above ground and from the Modified RCV9000 Water Cannon to Reduce the Threat of Loss of Life or Serious Injury from Individuals at Height
- M Relevant Health and Safety Legislation
- N Glossary of Terms, Abbreviations and Acronyms