3 Month Report

Area Commander's Commentary

The following report sets out how we are performing in terms of our agreed priorities for the first quarter of the financial year in North Down.

It is encouraging to note that in four major areas we are succeeding significantly: Anti-social behaviour, seizure of alcohol, criminal damage and drugs seizures. This success is due in large part to the successful partnerships with the DPP, Council, Community Safety Partnership, and organisations such as FASA.

The high level of support we receive from the community within North Down is critical to the success we see in these areas.

There has been an increase in incidents in three areas over the reporting period: Killed and Seriously Injured, Offences against the person and Domestic Burglary. This is obviously of concern and we have taken steps to counteract this increase.

In terms of Policing with the community the report sets out a huge range of projects we are undertaking which continue to develop our relations with partners and the people of North Down in order to deliver Personal, Professional and Protective policing.

Review of Policing with the Community activities within the North Down Area

Dealing with Difference (complete) - celebration event took place 24th August. Participants attended Parliament Buildings, Stormont with family and friends and were presented with certificates.

My Life My Choice (complete)- Community Schools Liaison Officer arranged a two day event in April for all Year 8 pupils in North Down to receive safety messages relating to Drugs and Alcohol. Partner agencies including PSNI were Ascertainment, FASA, Prison Me No Way, Simon Community . Over 900 pupils attended. (further details from Ken if needed) It is anticipated that this will become an annual event for Year 8.

Minority Liaison (ongoing) - work continues with a number of groups in the Borough. Una Turbitt East Down Rural Community Network is proposing the setting up of a Forum of Statutory/Voluntary representatives to look at the work being carried out with ethnic minorities. An initial meeting has taken place and future meetings/ events are planned including a youth event in partnership with SELB. NDBC Good Relations held a Breakfast meeting during which PSNI, YMCA, East Down Rural Community Network gave information. A Community Audit is also being undertaken in relation to the Black and Minority Ethnic community in North Down, Ards and Down.

Keepsafe (ongoing) – Voluntary disposal scheme for drugs in partnership with the community in Kilcooley.

Dropzone (ongoing) - Voluntary disposal scheme for drugs in partnership with FASA remains in place. All 'hand - ins' at FASA office are seized by PSNI and tested. Any information received by FASA from the person is forwarded to PSNI. Joint working between FASA and PSNI continues including Press Releases around the subject of 'Legal Highs'

You, Your Child and Alcohol - this initiative was re-launched in June with a coordinated Press release in local papers. Local PSNI attended Bloomfield, Springhill and Flagship shopping Centres and Asda to engage directly with the public. The You Your Child and Alcohol Leaflet was handed out during this time and a supply of leaflets left.

Neighbourhood Watch - promotion of the scheme is ongoing. Funding has been secured to hold meetings with Coordinators which will provide information and support.

BEESAFE - Is a P7 safety initiative planned to take place for North Down in March 2011. It will be a four day event with anticipated attendance of 800 pupils.

STARQUEST - this annual youth event which involves young people from groups across C District from September culminated in a final event on 22nd May 2010. Over 600 pupils presented their efforts during the event in forms of Dance music and Drama.

Child Intervention Panel – This is a pilot project incorporating North Down, Ards, Down and Lisburn Districts. Partnership referral/ Intervention partnership involving PSNI, Youth Justice Agency, Social Services and Educational Welfare. These agencies can refer young people to the CIP team who meet fortnightly to agree an intervention plan to address offending behaviour.

ARIS (Assets Recovery Incentivisation Scheme) - Funding has been secured to deliver partnership work with young people in Bloomfield Estate. An application was submitted and secured £15,000 for the project. This will commence in September.

Over 50's Forum - a safety event is planned for Over 50's to attend to receive information on personal and home safety. The event is aimed at providing advice and support in particular to individuals who may not normally meet with the group or Age Concern. Main partner agencies of the Forum are discussing methods of identifying the hard to reach within this age group to include them in this event.

Social Media Engagement (ongoing) – Holywood and Bangor neighbourhood teams have been running Facebook sites for a number of months now. This is still in the pilot stage, however following the initial success it is anticipated that it will continue in North Down. There are currently over 4000 users on both sites.

StreetKYDS (pilot scheme) – A joint initiative between police, CSP, NDBC and FASA. The scheme involves any juvenile found by police in a vulnerable state being taken to a place of safety until handed over to their parents. The child and parents are spoken to by FASA staff and offered support services to deal with any problems the family are having around the young persons drinking.

Streetsafe – This scheme has been relaunched after a period of absence. Information is shared between police and the streetsafe volunteers in relation to areas where young people gather and cause annoyance to residents. Street safe volunteers then engage with the youth to educate them in how their behaviour impacts on the area and attempt to encourage them into safe controlled areas/groups.

Safezone – Following a conference highlighting the benefit of the Street Pastor scheme, it is hoped to bring more churches together to ensure that their work in the community is highlighted and gels with the work being done by other voluntary and statutory agencies.

Quality of Service Call-backs – We now have a 6 Monthly report on Burglary – A number of lessons learned in particular around victim Feedback and updates but also good news in terms of the image, attitude and professionalism of officers. – The aim is now to consult with DPP's on which of our other policing priorities we should now be focusing on.

Scheduled Appointments Process – Based at Holywood since May, this initiative has seen officers on recuperative duties been used to attend scheduled non emergency calls across C District. The aim of the initiative is to provide victims with a more tailored service while at the same time increasing visibility, reducing the number of officers off 'sick', providing them with duties that assist in their rehabilitation and make full use of their warranted powers

Meet your Neighbourhood Team Initiative – The initiative continues in Holywood and Bangor. Neighbourhood Calling Cards have now been delivered to around 80 % of Holywood by our Part Time Officers. Our Facebook sites continue to go from strength to strength with nearly 5 and a half thousand people following police in North Down. Our ride along initiative (currently being rolled out across North Down) has also garnered significant attention having been recently featured on radio Ulster's Talk Back programme.

C1 – Officers from North Down have again unfortunately been called into action at riots over the course of the summer. Inspector Singleton who is the lead for the unit has undertaken a review of the districts Public Order Capability with the aim of improving officer safety, reducing costs and making better use of resources within the district. This work has already been highlighted as emerging good practice and is expected to be rolled out across the service. The benefits of this work are not limited to our corporate response to disorder, instead it offers us a flexible resource that can equally be used to tackle anti-social behaviour and maintain public safety at large events in the North Down area.

Graffiti Art Project – Work is continuing on Holywood's PEACE 3 funded Graffiti Art Project. The project which is a partnership initiative between North Down Borough Council, PSNI and Holywood in Harmony will now involve Northern Ireland Railways and a new Women's group called Ladies of Loughview from the Loughview Estate, Holywood.

Police Recording of Crime

Recorded crime figures (sometimes referred to as notifiable offences) detail those crimes and offences (including attempts) recorded by the police which are deemed to be indictable or triable-either-way. Certain closely associated summary offences are also counted in the recorded crime figures.

- Indictable offences are those more serious crimes which are tried on indictment in the Crown Court by a judge and jury.
- Triable-either-way offences are those offences which, under certain circumstances, are triable either summarily in a Magistrates Court or on indictment in the Crown Court.
- Summary offences are less serious and are tried in a Magistrates Court before a resident magistrate with no jury.

The number of crimes recorded by the police is dependent on two factors:

- whether the victim or a representative of the victim brings that crime to the attention of the police or on the crime coming to the attention of the police through some other means (such as the police officer being present at the time).
- whether that incident is determined as being a recordable offence within the categories laid down by the Home Office in the official counting rules.

Detections (or clearances)

Detections (or clearances as they may alternatively be known) are, broadly speaking, those crimes that have been 'detected' or 'cleared up' by the police. Crimes are counted as 'detected or cleared' in accordance with strict counting rules issued by the Home Office. They are counted on the basis of crimes rather than offenders. For example, if six offenders are involved in a robbery and are all arrested and charged, then this counts as one detection/clearance (i.e. the robbery is deemed to be 'detected or cleared'). Alternatively if only one of the six is identified and charged while the other five remain unidentified and at large, this also means that the robbery can still be deemed as 'detected or cleared'. In this respect detection/clearance data differs from conviction data as conviction data counts offenders while detection/clearance data counts crimes.

The following methods of detection/clearance involve a formal sanction:

- charging or issuing a summons to an offender (this will not necessarily result in a subsequent conviction at court),
- issuing a caution to the offender,
- having the offence accepted for consideration in court, or
- the offender is a juvenile who is dealt with by means of an informed warning, restorative caution or prosecutorial diversion.

In addition, for the most serious offence types ('indictable only') a non sanction detection/clearance can be claimed if:

- the Public Prosecution Service (PPS) directs no prosecution, or
- the case cannot proceed because the offender has died.

Recent Changes in the Recording of Detections/Clearances

Prior to April 2006 a variety of non sanction detections/clearances could be claimed where police took no further action, the main one being where the victim declined to prosecute. At that time these detection/clearance types accounted for around 50% of the PSNI's total detection/clearance rate. However, since then some major changes have been introduced which have substantially limited the detection/clearance options open to the PSNI.

In April 2006, a higher evidential standard was adopted within the PSNI following the establishment of the Public Prosecution Service in Northern Ireland. Then in April 2007, the Home Office significantly restricted the detection/clearance types available to the police, which meant that virtually all non sanction detection/clearances could no longer be claimed as a valid detection/clearance. Both of these changes had the impact of greatly reducing the number of non sanction detection/clearances to such an extent that the PSNI overall detection/clearance rate and its sanction detection/clearance rate are now virtually one and the same (only a very small proportion of non sanction detections/clearances are now claimed each year).

Detection/Clearance Rates

The detection (or clearance) rate is the number of detections recorded in a given time period as a percentage of the total number of crimes recorded in the same period.

Violent Crime

Violent crime comprises three main offence groupings – (i) offences against the person, (ii) sexual offences, and (iii) robbery. What violent crime offences have in common is that they involve actual violence or the threat of violence. The degree of violence varies considerably, even between incidents in the same classification. The large majority of incidents categorised as violent crime do not actually involve any significant injury to the victim, although some of the crimes not resulting in injury may still be traumatic for their victims, e.g. threats to kill.

Vehicle Crime

Vehicle crime comprises the offences of theft from motor vehicles and theft / unauthorised taking of motor vehicles.

Anti-Social Behaviour (ASB)

ASB incidents are operational figures (and are not quality assured by the PSNI's Central Statistics Unit) collated in accordance with the Home Office National Standard for Incident Recording (NSIR), which was introduced in April 2006. ASB incidents are a group of non-crime incidents that are reported to the police (i.e. they do not result in a notifiable offence). ASB incidents consist of the following incident types:

- Abandoned vehicles - (not stolen or causing an obstruction)
- Animal problems
- Begging / vagrancy
- Hoax calls to emergency services
- Inappropriate use / sale / possession of fireworks
- Malicious / nuisance communications
- Noise
- Prostitution related activity
- Rowdy and/or nuisance behaviour – littering / drugs paraphernalia
- Rowdy and/or nuisance behaviour - neighbours
- Rowdy or inconsiderate behaviour
- Street drinking
- Trespass
- Vehicle nuisance / inappropriate vehicle use
