FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST

Request Number: F-2010-00514

Keyword: Operational Policing

Subject: Speed Detection Cameras

Request and Answer:

Question

I would like to know whether any speed camera(s) in the police service's area have ever been set to a limit which is not the actual exact speed limit but perhaps a few miles an hour above it?

Answer

In accordance with the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request. The Police Service of Northern Ireland (PSNI) can neither confirm nor deny that it holds the information you have requested.

Section 1 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA) places two duties on public authorities. Unless exemptions apply, the first duty at Section 1(1)(a) is to confirm or deny whether the information specified in the request is held. The second duty at Section 1(1)(b) is to disclose information that has been confirmed as being held.

Where exemptions are relied upon Section 17 of FOIA requires that we provide the applicant with a notice which;

- a) states that fact,
- b) specifies the exemption(s) in question and
- c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The Police Service of Northern Ireland can Neither Confirm Nor Deny that it holds the information relevant to your request as the duty in Section 1(1)(a) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 does not apply by virtue of the following exemptions;

Section 31(3) Law Enforcement
Section 38(2) Health and Safety

Sections 31 and 38 of the Act are qualified exemptions, meaning that the PSNI, in addition to c) above, must under normal circumstances, state the reasons for claiming that the public interest in maintaining the exclusion of the duty to confirm or deny outweighs the public interest in disclosing whether we hold the information. However, where to state the reasons why the exemptions apply, or where to state the public interest considerations would involve the disclosure of information that would itself be exempt information, the PSNI is not obliged to make such statements by virtue of Section 17(4) of the Act.

To state the reasons why the exemptions at Sections 31(3) and 38(2) apply, and to state the public interest considerations, would in this case amount to disclosing exempt information. I have therefore not stated these reasons on this occasion.

However, this should not be taken as conclusive evidence that the information you requested exists or does not exist.

If you have any queries regarding your request or the decision please do not hesitate to contact me on 028 9070 0164. When contacting the Freedom of Information Team, please quote the reference number listed at the beginning of this letter.

If you are dissatisfied in any way with the handling of your request, you have the right to request a review. You should do this as soon as possible, or in any case within two months of the date of issue of this letter. In the event that you require a review to be undertaken, you can do so by writing to the Head of Freedom of Information, PSNI Headquarters, 65 Knock Road, Belfast, BT5 6LE or by emailing foi@psni.pnn.police.uk.

If following an internal review, carried out by an independent decision maker, you were to remain dissatisfied in any way with the handling of the request you may make a complaint, under Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act, to the Information Commissioner's Office and ask that they investigate whether the PSNI has complied with the terms of the Freedom of Information Act. You can write to the Information Commissioner at Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF. In most circumstances the Information Commissioner will not investigate a complaint unless an internal review procedure has been carried out, however the Commissioner has the option to investigate the matter at his discretion.

Please be advised that PSNI replies under Freedom of Information may be released into the public domain via our website @ www.psni.police.uk

Personal details in respect of your request have, where applicable, been removed to protect confidentiality.
