Subject: DDA staff warnings Bradford Factor 1 January 2010 - 2011

Request and Answer:

Question

How many DDA police staff has received warnings for breaching Bradford 1 January 2010-1 January 2011?

Answer

Section 17(5) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Police Service of Northern Ireland, when refusing to provide such information (because the cost of compliance exceeds the appropriate limit) to provide you the applicant with a notice which states that fact.

It is estimated that the cost of complying with your request for information would exceed the "appropriate costs limit" under Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, which is currently set by the Secretary of State at £450.

The information requested is not held in a central location within the PSNI but is held within the District Command Units and Departments. Each of the Districts/Departments was asked to provide time estimates as to how long it would take to retrieve this information from their systems. One District alone advised that individual research would take an estimated 6 hours to retrieve and it would involve checking the AMP schedule which records all persons who were subject to AMP and the outcome of the AMP. Police Staff, who are recorded as having received a warning, would then have to be cross referenced against the list of duty adjusted officers and staff which would give the staff with DDA. It is estimated that the total time required for all Districts/Departments to locate, and extract the information requested would take an estimated 35 hours and 30 minutes.

In accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000, this letter should be considered as a Refusal Notice, and the request has therefore been closed.

You may wish to submit a refined request in order that the cost of complying with your request may be facilitated within the 'appropriate limit'. In compliance with Section 16 of the Act, I have considered how your request may be refined to bring it under the appropriate limit, however with the information requested it unfortunately makes it impossible.

Submission of a refined request would be treated as a new request, and considered in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000, including consideration of relevant Part II exemptions.

You can write to the Information Commissioner at Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF.
