

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST

Request Number: F-2011-04227

Keyword: Road Policing

Subject: Cycle Lanes

Request and Answer:

This is to inform you that the Police Service of Northern Ireland (PSNI) has now completed its search for the information you requested and the answers to your questions are as follows.

Question

How many enforcement notices, and how many successful fines have been issued to motorist who park in Advisory Cycle Lanes?

Clarification: I would be very grateful for data for the years 2009/2010 as well as 2010/2011, so that I may ascertain if there is a trend.

Answer

The PSNI Roads Policing Department has advised that the offence referred to falls within the de-criminalisation of parking. Consequently the police do not enforce this matter and it is enforced by Traffic Attendants working under the authority of Department of Regional Development (DRD) Roads Service.

For your assistance I have provided a link to the DRD Freedom of Information pages

If you have any queries regarding your request or the decision please do not hesitate to contact me on 028 9070 0164. When contacting the Freedom of Information Team, please quote the reference number listed at the beginning of this letter.

If you are dissatisfied in any way with the handling of your request, you have the right to request a review. You should do this as soon as possible, or in any case within two months of the date of issue of this letter. In the event that you require a review to be undertaken, you can do so by writing to the Head of Freedom of Information, PSNI Headquarters, 65 Knock Road, Belfast, BT5 6LE or by emailing foi@psni.pnn.police.uk.

If following an internal review, carried out by an independent decision maker, you were to remain dissatisfied in any way with the handling of the request you may make a complaint, under Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act, to the Information Commissioner's Office and ask that they investigate whether the PSNI has complied with the terms of the Freedom of Information Act. You can write to the Information Commissioner at Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF. In most circumstances the Information Commissioner will not investigate a complaint unless an internal review procedure has been carried out, however the Commissioner has the option to investigate the matter at his discretion.

Please be advised that PSNI replies under Freedom of Information may be released into the public domain via our website @ www.psni.police.uk
