

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST

Request Number: F-2012-01132

Keyword: Crime

Subject: Thefts of Livestock

Request and Answer:

I am writing to confirm that the Police Service of Northern Ireland has now completed its search for the information.

I have today decided to:

- disclose information in response to question 1, subject to the deletion of information pursuant to the provisions of Section 40 of the Freedom of Information 2000 (the Act)

Question

Provide a breakdown of all thefts of livestock (i.e. farm animals) which have been reported stolen in each of the last three years (2009-2011).

In each instance please specify the date, details of the number and type of livestock stolen, the financial value of the livestock, and the PSNI's DCU/area in which the theft took place.

Answer

Please find attached at the end of this correspondence the table containing the thefts of livestock from 2009 – to date, by each Policing Area, the animal stolen and the estimated value.

Please note this information is based on data taken from a live crime recording system and may be subject to change

I have decided to withhold the dates of the incidents that the thefts were reported on.

Section 17(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Police Service of Northern Ireland, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which:

- (a) states that fact,
- (b) specifies the exemption in question and
- (c) states (if not otherwise apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption, as well as the factors the Department considered when deciding where the public interest lies, are listed below:

Section 40 (2) (a) and (b) by virtue of Section 40 (3) (a) (i) – Personal Information

Section 40 Personal Information is a class-based exemption, therefore it is not necessary to evidence the harm caused by disclosure. The data protection rights of a third party would be breached by disclosure, therefore Section 40(2) is an Absolute exemption and a Public Interest Test is not necessary. This is so because personal data is governed by other law (The Data Protection Act 1998). All requests made under FOIA are applicant blind. A request must be treated as such and a public authority will always view any disclosure as into the public domain and not just to an individual.

Personal Data is regulated under the principles of the Data Protection Act 1998 and when information contains personal data about a third party it can only be released if disclosure would not breach any data protection principles.

Principle (1), that personal data is processed lawfully and fairly. Personal data of this nature is recorded and it must be treated in a highly confidential manner and any public disclosure would be unlawful if there is a breach of that law of confidentiality.

When a member of the public provides personal data i.e. the date the theft took place to the PSNI they will have an expectation that it will be treated fairly. The date that an incident took place, along with further specific details of the incident, could be used to identify any individuals involved. The Service would be failing in its lawful duty were it to breach the Data Protection Act in order to furnish a disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. The Service has a duty to protect the personal data of all members of the public and any disclosure of this type of data into the public domain that relates or could be used to identify persons who have been involved in an incident will be unfair to any individual concerned. The public must have confidence that any of their information is treated sensitively and appropriately. Therefore, in all circumstances of the case, public interest in maintaining the exemption outweighs the public interest in disclosing the information.

If you have any queries regarding your request or the decision please do not hesitate to contact me on 028 9070 0164. When contacting the Freedom of Information Team, please quote the reference number listed at the beginning of this letter.

If you are dissatisfied in any way with the handling of your request, you have the right to request a review. You should do this as soon as possible, or in any case within two months of the date of issue of this letter. In the event that you require a review to be undertaken, you can do so by writing to the Head of Freedom of Information, PSNI Headquarters, 65 Knock Road, Belfast, BT5 6LE or by emailing foi@psni.pnn.police.uk.

If following an internal review, carried out by an independent decision maker, you were to remain dissatisfied in any way with the handling of the request you may make a complaint, under Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act, to the Information Commissioner's Office and ask that they investigate whether the PSNI has complied with the terms of the Freedom of Information Act. You can write to the Information Commissioner at Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF. In most circumstances the Information Commissioner will not investigate a complaint unless an internal review procedure has been carried out, however the Commissioner has the option to investigate the matter at his discretion.

Please be advised that PSNI replies under Freedom of Information may be released into the public domain via our website @ www.psni.police.uk

Personal details in respect of your request have, where applicable, been removed to protect confidentiality.
