

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST

Request Number: F-2013-02827

Keyword: Operational Policing

Subject: Overtime Paid To Officers For G8 Summit

Request and Answer:

Question

Amount of overtime paid to Police Officers for covering G8 summit that would include build up and the event itself in Fermanagh and other locations Aldergrove and Belfast for Obama.

Answer

The final overtime bill will not be known for 4 months as officers are by regulation permitted that period to submit claims for checking. There is a three month claim window plus four weeks processing and claim checking.

Accordingly, I have determined that the Police Service of Northern Ireland does not hold the information to which you seek access as of the date of your request these searches failed to locate any records or documents relevant to your request based on the information you have provided.

If you are dissatisfied in any way with the handling of your request, you have the right to request a review. You should do this as soon as possible, or in any case within two months of the date of issue of this letter. In the event that you require a review to be undertaken, you can do so by writing to the Head of Freedom of Information, PSNI Headquarters, 65 Knock Road, Belfast, BT5 6LE or by emailing foi@psni.pnn.police.uk.

If following an internal review, carried out by an independent decision maker, you were to remain dissatisfied in any way with the handling of the request you may make a complaint, under Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act, to the Information Commissioner's Office and ask that they investigate whether the PSNI has complied with the terms of the Freedom of Information Act. You can write to the Information Commissioner at Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF. In most circumstances the Information Commissioner will not investigate a complaint unless an internal review procedure has been carried out, however the Commissioner has the option to investigate the matter at his discretion.
