

CONFIDENTIAL

The Chief Constable has an overarching function under Section 33(1) of the Police (Northern Ireland) Act 2000 to direct and control the Police Service of Northern Ireland (PSNI). This legislation gives the Chief Constable the authority to direct where an officer must serve.

To assist Human Resources in deciding which District you will be allocated to, upon successful completion of the training course, please complete the following and return it to Police Recruitment, Lisnasharragh:-

PERSONAL DETAILS

SURNAME: ..... FORENAME: .....

UID NUMBER: .....

ADDRESS: .....

.....

.....

The following Districts, marked with an 'X' are available for you to choose:

A	B	C	D	E	F	G	H	J	K	L
X	X	N/A	X	X	N/A	X	X	X	X	X

**Please note that upon commencement within District you will be subject to a two year probationary period and a further one year commitment period to the District allocated.****

If you have any circumstances that you think are compelling, and wish them to be considered, please outline them below. Please note having a mortgage, young children or travel time to station is not considered to be compelling.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

You are permitted to choose up to 4 Districts, not locations, from those available (see above). Each District choice carries equal weighting. There should be no expectation that the choices made can be facilitated as allocations are determined by current organisational requirements. Please place an 'X' in the appropriate box(es) below

A	B	C	D	E	F	G	H	J	K	L
		N/A			N/A

Signed.....

Date.....