

REPORTING A HATE CRIME

If you report a religious incident a Police officer will contact you (unless you indicate that you do not want them to) and provide information about the incident and any developments in the investigation. They will also provide information on crime prevention, police powers and procedures and appropriate support groups.

The officer can be spoken to in confidence, offer a sympathetic service and respond appropriately to the individual needs of the victim, taking their cultural needs and sensitivities into consideration.

Information including contact details for Neighbourhood Police Team officers in your District can be found at:

A confidential online reporting tool is available on the police website.

The Hate Crime Advocacy Scheme has been in operation in Victim Support NI since July 2013 and is funded by the Department of Justice and PSNI. It is a referral agency consisting of people who have an in-depth understanding of the various hate motivations for which a victim may be targeted. This allows for a bespoke support service to be offered to victims of hate crime to assist them through the criminal justice process.
