Keeping People Safe

Local Policing Review 2018

Consultation Response Form

Introduction

The Northern Ireland Policing Board and the Police Service of Northern Ireland are seeking views from the community and key stakeholders on the future priorities, structure and delivery for local policing in Northern Ireland. The Local Policing Review 2018 Consultation Document explains the purpose of this consultation and provides context around the consultation questions asked below. The results of this questionnaire will help to shape and inform the future of Local Policing across Northern Ireland.

Question 1 – How have you used the Police Service of Northern Ireland?
Question Explained – This question is seeking to obtain a general understanding of what, if any, PSNI services you have used. This question is not asking for specific details of any incidents or involvement you may have had with the PSNI, instead it is looking for a general overview. Examples could include the reporting of an incident, involvement in a road traffic collision, or if you received crime prevention advice.

Question 2 - What aspects of Policing in your local area are important to you?
Question Explained – This question is seeking to ascertain what elements of policing are important to you in your area. This question covers a wide range of activities, examples include, but are in no way limited to, responding to emergency calls for service, conducting high-visibility foot patrols, attending community meetings or addressing anti-social behaviour. This question is not looking for specific details or personal information, it is attempting to ascertain which elements of local policing, or policing activity is important to you.

Question 3 - How do you think the PSNI could improve Policing in your area?

Question Explained – This question is seeking to understand how you think policing in your area could be improved by the PSNI. This question is not looking for specific incidents or personal information; instead it is seeking to obtain information around how you feel the delivery of policing in your area could be improved..

Demographics - Questions about You:

Why we are asking – These questions are being asked for a number of reason, firstly to ascertain if the responses we receive are a representative sample of the population and secondly to understand the submitted responses at a local level. This local understanding of the feedback received will help shape and inform the future of local policing across communities.
