Please could you let me know of any recent good news stories, where you have successfully solved a crime and the victim has received justice? I wish to post these stories on social media and report on the good work that many Policemen/ women actually do.

Please let me know of any good news stories where the police have done an excellent job (minus the names of course) and I will post them everywhere I can, to hopefully paint you guys in a positive light once again.

Answer

Your request for information has now been considered and we are not obliged to supply the information you have requested under Section 21 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

Section 17(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Police Service of Northern Ireland (PSNI), when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide the applicant with a notice which:

- (a) states the fact,
- (b) specifies the exemption in question and
- (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The following exemption has been applied:

Section 21 - Information Reasonably Accessible by Other Means

PSNI can advise that the information requested above can be readily obtained and therefore section 21 of the FOIA can be applied. The purpose of the Section 21 exemption is to ensure that there is no right of access to information via FOIA if it is available to the requester by another route.

The full text of exemptions can be found at www.legislation.gov.uk and further guidance on how they operate can be located on the Information Commissioner's Office website www.ico.org.uk.

PSNI can advise that articles relating to your request are located on our News page, in addition to our social media platforms, where you may find the information to which you seek access.
