

Security Statistics Consultation Meetings

Much of the feedback from users of this data comes from informal discussions which take place in response to requests for information or general one-off queries about the data already provided. In addition to this, Head of Statistics Branch is required to attend and provide input to a number of cross-departmental strategy groups.

Date	Meeting / Consultation
September 2011	Meeting with Independent Reviewer of Justice and Security Act for Northern Ireland Robert Whalley, C.B. and his team to discuss provision of statistics on the PSNI's use of JSA powers for his annual report.
September 2012	Meeting with Independent Reviewer of Justice and Security Act for Northern Ireland Robert Whalley, C.B. and his team to discuss provision of statistics on the PSNI's use of JSA powers for his annual report.
October 2013	Meeting with Independent Reviewer of Justice and Security Act for Northern Ireland Robert Whalley, C.B. and his team to discuss provision of statistics on the PSNI's use of JSA powers for his annual report.
On-going	Head of Statistics Branch attends ad hoc meetings with The Executive Office statisticians to review and update their 'Good Relations Indicators'.
October 2014	Meeting with Independent Reviewer of Justice and Security Act for Northern Ireland David Seymour, C.B. and senior police officers, to discuss provision of statistics on the PSNI's use of JSA for inclusion in his annual report.
September 2015	Meeting with Independent Reviewer of Justice and Security Act for Northern Ireland David Seymour, C.B. and senior police officers, to discuss provision of statistics on the PSNI's use of JSA for inclusion in his annual report.
October 2016	Meeting with Independent Reviewer of Justice and Security Act for Northern Ireland David Seymour, C.B. and senior police officers, to discuss provision of statistics on the PSNI's use of JSA for inclusion in his annual report.
On-going	The PSNI's Security Statistics are regularly monitored by Board members and officials in the Northern Ireland Policing Board and the Head of PSNI's Statistics Branch attended a number of meetings of the Performance Committee during 2016 to discuss aspects of the statistics.
On-going	The PSNI's Security Statistics are used by policy colleagues within PSNI and the Head of PSNI's Statistics Branch attends various PSNI steering groups and working groups which are held on a regular basis throughout the year. The statistics are monitored and developed to reflect best practice nationally.