

C2111 - 2021

Police Service
of Northern Ireland

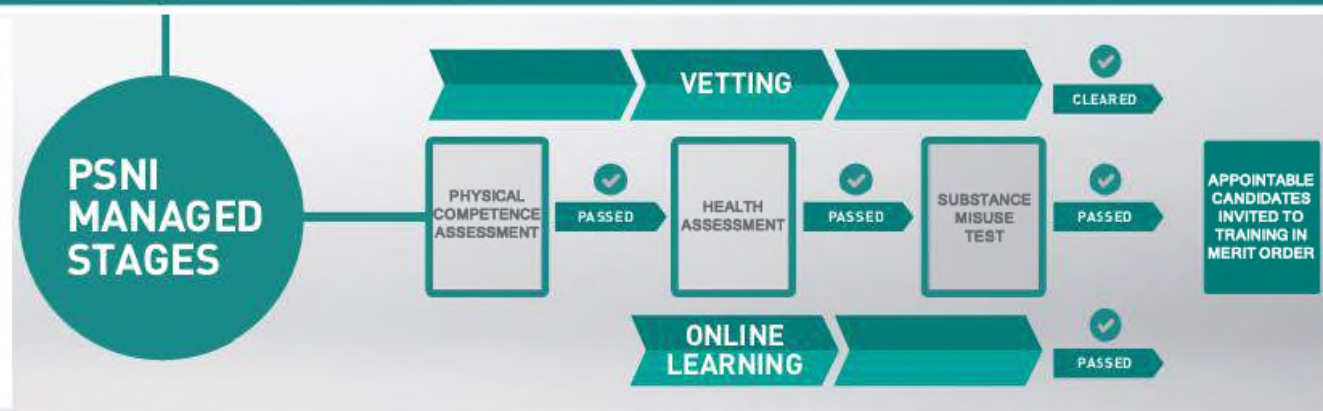

Recruitment timeline and the stages you will go through

If you meet the basic eligibility criteria, you will then be invited to complete the Online Initial Selection Test (IST) from 24th November 2021. Applicants who are successful at IST will be asked to submit evidence of their education eligibility via an online evidence uploader during early January 2022.

Assessment Centres will begin in late January 2022.

Successful Assessment Centre candidates will be included on the merit list passed to Police Service of Northern Ireland and will then start the next stages of the recruitment process from June 2022.

Please note that all timelines are indicative and may be subject to change. If timelines change applicants will be informed.
